The Frank Britton Recovery Fund

Frank Britton, the DC Theater community's beloved ChaiLatte Brother, and true loving, giving friend, was attacked on Monday, May 26, 2014 as he was hailing a cab in downtown Silver Spring, MD after a performance at the Forum Theater.

Frank is one of the hardest working actors in this town, and depends on his stage work for his livelihood. Medical bill will undoubtedly pile up after this attack, so let's chip in and make his full recovery easier!
